Floridians Show Favoritism for Democrats

Raleigh, N.C. - Although swing-state Florida has been a key battleground state for the November election, many voters are beginning to show favoritism for the Democratic Party. If there was an election today, $47 \%$ say they would vote for the Democratic candidate for Congress, while $43 \%$ would vote for the Republican candidate. This shows a gain of 3 points for Democrats since the end of August, when $44 \%$ supported the Democratic candidate and 43\% supported the Republican candidate.

In addition, Senator Bill Nelson has gained support from Floridians over the past few weeks. The Survey found that Senator Nelson would now take $46 \%$ of the vote for Florida Senate compared to Connie Mack IV’s 37\%. Despite Nelson’s approval slightly lower than a month ago, now 34 from 35, he leads Connie Mack by 9 points, an increase of 2 points from August when he led 45 to 38 .
"Bill Nelson continues to look like a pretty strong favorite for reelection," said Dean Debnam, President of Public Policy Polling. "He’s not popular, but Connie Mack IV has proven to be an exceptionally weak opponent for him."

Currently, Rick Scott is facing high disapproval ratings from his constituents. $48 \%$ of likely Florida voters disapprove of Scott’s job performance. Further, $48 \%$ stated that if there was an election today they would vote for the Democratic opponent, while 42\% would vote for Scott.

48\% of Florida voters think that Charlie Crist should become a Democrat, while only $21 \%$ disagree. This comes after Crist's recent speech at the Democratic National Convention in Charlotte, NC. Although Crist's approval ratings are not favorable with $43 \%$ having an unfavorable opinion compared to $39 \%$ with a favorable opinion, voters do see him leading the state. If Crist were to run against Rick Scott for Governor of the state in 2014, Crist is favored by 5 points with $48 \%$ of the vote while Scott carries $43 \%$.

PPP surveyed 861 likely Florida voters from September $20^{\text {th }}$ to $23^{\text {rd }}$. The margin of error for the survey is $+/-3.3 \%$. This poll was not paid for or authorized by any campaign or political organization. PPP surveys are conducted through automated telephone interviews.
