Kentucky: Hillary Clinton would beat Paul, Rubio in 2016

Raleigh, N.C. - PPP's latest Kentucky poll finds voters favor Hillary Clinton 48/42. She would lead Kentucky in 2016 against Republican contenders Rand Paul and Marco Rubio, 47/42 and 48/40 respectively. Clinton also has the highest gender gap among any candidate polled- women prefer her 55/40. Only 31\% of Kentuckians have a favorable view of Rubio, to $22 \%$ unfavorable and $47 \%$ not sure. Rand Paul polls better, with $43 \%$ of voters approving of the Senator’s job performance.
"The fact that Hillary Clinton would be in a position to win Kentucky, perhaps more than any other data we've seen over the last month, shows what a formidable candidate she would be for President in 2016," said Dean Debnam, President of Public Policy Polling.

In a head-to-head between Beshear and Paul for Senate in 2016, Beshear narrowly wins 46/44. The Senator tied when pitted against Ashley Judd, 47/46. When asked if they preferred their next governor be a Democrat or a Republican, voters want a Republican Governor 42/39. This makes sense, especially when considering Republicans are more likely than Democrats to vote based on party affiliation. 66\% of Democrats would vote for an unspecified Democrat, compared to $79 \%$ of GOP voters who would vote according to party affiliation.

Voters are much more likely to be Kentucky University sports fans than Louisville sports fans 66/17, though fewer voters have an opinion about Kentucky Coach John Calipari, than they do about Louisville Coach Rick Pitino 64/76. Calipari is seen as more favorably than Pitino, 49/44. 36\% support Louisville's move from the Big East to the ACC, with $53 \%$ being unsure. When it comes to the NFL, Kentucky's clear favorite is the Bengals at $25 \%$. The Cowboys and Packers tied for second with $11 \%$ each.

Kentuckians prefer Jim Beam slighter more than Jack Daniels 20/18, with 61\% not having an opinion either way. Men were more likely than women to prefer Jim Beam 24/17.

PPP surveyed 1266 registered Kentucky voters from December $7^{\text {th }}$ to $9^{\text {th }}$. The margin of error for the poll is $+/-2.8 \%$. This poll was not paid for or authorized by any campaign or political organization. PPP surveys are conducted through automated telephone interviews.
