Iowans Oppose Branstad on Medicaid Privatization, Mental Health Closures

Raleigh, N.C. - -Iowa voters are strongly opposed to Governor Branstad's proposal to privatize Medicaid. Just 22\% of voters are in support of it, with a $52 \%$ majority against. Both Democrats (7/78) and independents (25/49) are firmly against it and even Republicans (36/26) are only narrowly in favor. This is proving to be a very unpopular initiative.

Voters are even more firm in their opposition to Branstad's proposal to close the state's mental health facilities in Clarinda and Mount Pleasant. Just 12\% favor that to $68 \%$ who are opposed. On that issue there is a pretty clear bipartisan consensus- Democrats (5/84), independents (12/69), and Republicans (19/50) are all opposed to their closure.
"Iowans are strongly opposed to Governor Branstad’s plans to privatize Medicaid and close mental health facilities," said Dean Debnam, President of Public Policy Polling ${ }^{\circledR}$. "Even voters within his own party don't support him on these initiatives."

Chuck Grassley continues to easily be Iowa's most popular politician. 53\% of voters approve of the job he's doing to $32 \%$ who disapprove. Voters are much more divided on the state's other two major statewide leaders- Terry Branstad's approval comes in at 44/44 and Joni Ernst's at 40/41. The second most popular statewide political figure we tested in the state is former Governor Tom Vilsack who comes in at $48 / 34$. Lieutenant Governor Kim Reynolds is largely unknown with $56 \%$ of voters saying they have no opinion about her- those who do have one are evenly divided in their assessments with $22 \%$ rating her positively and $22 \%$ negatively.

Neither of the state's 2 new members of Congress are setting the world on fire. Rod Blum has a 31/31 favorability rating in his district, with a 38\% plurality having no opinion one way or the other. David Young is worse off with a $24 / 35$ favorability rating and $41 \%$ having no opinion about him. Both of these folks' fate will probably be up to which way the political winds are blowing next fall.

Public Policy Polling ${ }^{\circledR}$ surveyed 1,219 Iowa voters from April $23^{\text {rd }}$ to $26^{\text {th }}$. The survey's margin of error is $+/-2.8 \%$. $80 \%$ of interviews for the poll were conducted over the phone with $20 \%$ interviewed over the internet to reach respondents who don't have landline telephones.
