Subject: Clinton, Sanders close in CT/PA/RI; Trump Headed for Big Wins

Date: 4-25-16

New Public Policy Polling surveys in Connecticut, Pennsylvania, and Rhode Island conducted on behalf of VoteVets.Org Action Fund find the Democratic race for President in those states competitive, while on the Republican side Donald Trump is headed for blowout victories across the board.

The Democratic races in Connecticut and Rhode Island appear to be toss ups, with Clinton and Sanders each having a slight advantage in one of the states. In Connecticut Clinton has a narrow edge at 48/46, thanks in large part to a 63/24 advantage among African Americans. In Rhode Island it's Sanders who has a 49/45 lead. Clinton's up 54/40 with actual Democrats there, but Sanders is up 67/28 among independents planning to vote in the Democratic primary and that gives him the overall lead. Clinton has a wider lead in Pennsylvania at 51/41, although that still represents a closer race than most public polls have shown over the last few weeks.

State	Democratic Results
Connecticut	Clinton 48, Sanders 46
Pennsylvania	Clinton 51, Sanders 41
Rhode Island	Sanders 49, Clinton 45

Things aren't nearly so competitive on the Republican side, with Donald Trump getting a majority of voters in each state. He's strongest in Rhode Island where he gets 61% to 23% for John Kasich, and 13% for Ted Cruz. The numbers are very similar in Connecticut with Trump getting 59% to 25% for Kasich, and 13% for Cruz. Things are a little bit different in Pennsylvania where Trump's share of the vote isn't as high (51%) and Cruz edges out Kasich 25/22 for second place. None of these states are particularly amenable to the 'Never Trump' movement. Trump has the highest favorability rating of the GOP candidates in each state, and also handily wins head to head match ups with Cruz and Kasich in all three states. One thing that comes across in all these places is how unpopular Cruz is- he's way under water even with Republican primary voters.

State	Republican Results	Trump Favorability	Cruz Favorability
Connecticut	Trump 59, Kasich 25, Cruz 13	66/27	26/61
Pennsylvania	Trump 51, Cruz 25, Kasich 22	59/36	35/51
Rhode Island	Trump 61, Kasich 23, Cruz 13	69/26	24/59

Over 60% of voters in each of these states are opposed to the privatization of health care services provided by the Department of Veterans Affairs. What's particularly noteworthy is that in addition to more than 70% of Democrats in each of the states, there's also a majority of Republicans in opposition. This is a concept that doesn't draw support from voters in either party:

State	Overall Privatization	With Democrats	With Republicans
Connecticut	24/64	19/70	34/55
Pennsylvania	27/65	22/70	31/57
Rhode Island	20/73	14/79	33/57

This is also an issue where voters across party lines say they would punish politicians who advocate for privatization of VA health care services. 59-68% of voters in the three states say they'd be less likely to vote for a candidate who supported doing that, and that includes pluralities of Republicans in addition to strong majorities of Democrats who would be less likely to vote for a candidate that advocated privatization of VA health services.

State	Overall Privatization Support Impact on Vote for Politician	With Democrats	With Republicans
Connecticut	26% More Likely, 59% Less Likely	21/66	36/49
Pennsylvania	25% More Likely, 63% Less Likely	19/73	33/53
Rhode Island	20% More Likely, 68% Less Likely	14/75	33/49

Another issue we find bipartisan agreement on is the desire for candidates who will work to lessen the United States' dependence on fossil fuels by embracing measures like solar, wind, and renewable fuels. Over 60% of primary voters in each of these states are more likely to vote for someone who makes that a priority. That includes more than 70% of Democrats and more than 50% of Republicans in each state.

State	Overall Lessen Dependence on Fossil Fuels	With Democrats	With Republicans
Connecticut	71% More Likely, 19% Less Likely	79/12	58/32
Pennsylvania	63% More Likely, 27% Less Likely	73/17	50/40
Rhode Island	75% More Likely, 18% Less Likely	82/11	63/27

Finally we find that voters in all three of these states want the Supreme Court seat filled this year- and despise Mitch McConnell, whose unpopularity we continue to find could be a big drag on Senate Republicans seeking reelection this fall. McConnell has a 10% approval or less in each state. At the same time, voters in all three places support filling the Supreme Court vacancy this year by a double digit margin:

State	Support/Oppose Filling Supreme Court Vacancy This Year	McConnell Approval
Connecticut	59/34	10/48
Pennsylvania	52/39	7/43
Rhode Island	58/34	8/48

Public Policy Polling interviewed likely primary voters between April 22nd and 24th on behalf of VoteVets.org Action Fund. There were 1,221 interviews in Connecticut, including 709 Democratic primary voters and 512 Republican primary voters. The margins of error for those three groups in Connecticut are +/-2.8%, +/-3.7%, and +/-4.3% respectively. There were 1,554 interviews in Pennsylvania, including 728 Democratic primary voters and 826 Republican primary voters. The margins of error for those three groups in Pennsylvania are +/-2.5%, +/-3.6%, and +/-3.4% respectively. There were 1,179 interviews in Rhode Island, including 668 Democratic primary voters and 511 Republican primary voters. The margins of error for those three groups in Rhode Island are +/-2.9%, +/-3.8%, and +/-4.3% respectively. The polls were conducted using a blended methodology with automated phone calls to landlines and online interviews of cell phone only respondents.

Q1 There is a proposal in Congress to privatize some of the services veterans receive from the VA. Currently VA Hospitals cover veterans for all their health care needs. Under this proposal some of the hospital programs would be privatized, and veterans would get a credit card like voucher, where they would have to pay for their health care through a private for profit insurance company. The voucher would only pay for some of the costs for private insurance, and the hospital services currently fully covered by the VA would go away. Would you strongly favor, somewhat favor, somewhat oppose, or strongly oppose this plan to privatize some VA services and eventually do away with the VA health care system?

Strongly favor..... 11%
Somewhat favor..... 13%
Somewhat oppose..... 19%
Strongly oppose..... 45%
Not sure..... 11%

Q2 If a candidate for office supported privatizing the VA health care system and making it more like a private for profit system, would that make you much more likely, somewhat more likely, somewhat less likely, or much less likely to vote for them in the next election?

Much more likely..... 10%
Somewhat more likely..... 16%
Somewhat less likely..... 29%
Much less likely..... 30%
Wouldn't make a difference..... 15%

Q3 You may have heard about a connection between fossil fuels and terrorism. Even though the US doesn't buy oil directly from regimes hostile to us and our allies, our demand for oil does drive up world prices, which benefits hostile regimes. Knowing this, would you be much more likely, somewhat more likely, somewhat less likely, or much less likely to vote for a candidate who believes the United States must do all it can to lessen our dependence on fossil fuels by embracing measures like solar, wind, and renewable fuels, like biofuels?

Much more likely..... 46%
