Begich leads all potential GOP challengers in Senate matchup

Raleigh, N.C. – In PPP’s first Alaska poll of 2014, incumbent Senator Mark Begich holds a lead against all Republican challengers we tested him against. Begich leads 41/37 over former Commissioner of the Alaska Department of Natural Resources Dan Sullivan, 44/40 over former governor Sarah Palin, 43/37 over Lieutenant Governor Mead Treadwell, and 45/25 over the Tea Party-backed 2010 Senate candidate Joe Miller. This new poll shows little movement from our July poll, with Begich narrowly widening his lead on Treadwell, but losing a bit of his lead on Sullivan, Palin, and Miller.

Begich leads despite having mixed approval ratings, as 43% of voters approve of the job he’s doing compared to 44% who disapprove. As for the Republican candidates, only Mead Treadwell boasts a positive favorability rating, with 33% of voters having a favorable opinion of him and 31% having an unfavorable opinion. Alaskans have a slightly less favorable opinion of Dan Sullivan (30/35). While Sarah Palin remains unpopular (39/55), Alaskans really hate Joe Miller—only 16% have a favorable opinion of him as compared to 62% who have an unfavorable opinion.

In the upcoming GOP primary, Dan Sullivan leads the field with 30% of Republicans supporting him. Mead Treadwell is not far behind with 25%, and Joe Miller is at 20%. Neither of the other candidates tested in the poll, John Jaramillo and Kathleen Tonn, garnered more than 4% of the vote.

“A lot has happened politically since we polled Alaska last July but Mark Begich’s standing is mostly unchanged,” said Dean Debnam, President of Public Policy Polling. “He had small leads over his Republican opponents then, and he has small leads over them now. It will be a close race but so far he is hanging on.”

As for the upcoming gubernatorial race, incumbent Republican Sean Parnell leads Democrat Byron Mallott and Independent Bill Walker, 41/25/16. In the race for Alaska’s lone Congressional seat, incumbent Republican Don Young leads Democrat Matt Moore and Libertarian Jim McDermott, 50/22/12.

PPP surveyed 850 registered voters from January 30th to February 1st, including 442 Republican primary voters. The margin of error for the overall survey is +/- 3.4%, and for the Republicans it’s +/-4.7%. 80% of interviews for the poll were conducted over the phone with 20% interviewed over the internet to reach respondents who don’t have landline telephones.
