Crist, Scott continue to be closely matched

Raleigh, N.C. – PPP's newest Florida poll continues to find a tight race for Governor, with Charlie Crist holding a slight advantage over Rick Scott. Crist is at 42% to 39% for Scott, and 8% for Libertarian Adrian Wyllie. This election is shaping up as a choice between two candidates voters have decided they don't care for. Only 40% of voters approve of the job Scott is doing to 49% who disapprove. But they don't like Crist either- 40% of voters rate him favorably with 46% holding a negative opinion. The dissatisfaction with both major candidates probably helps to explain Wyllie's 8% standing but since he is drawing pretty equally from both Scott and Crist he's not having a major effect on the race in the way some Libertarians are in other states.

“PPP’s conducted 4 Florida polls this year and Rick Scott and Charlie Crist have been within the margin of error on 3 of them,” said Dean Debnam, President of Public Policy Polling. “This one is definitely headed down to the wire just like the razor thin contest Scott was first elected in.”

Republicans have decent sized leads in Florida's down ballot races, although they're not likely to receive the same sorts of overwhelming margins they enjoyed in 2010. Adam Putnam leads Thad Hamilton 42/37 for Commissioner of Agriculture, Pam Bondi is up 43/35 on George Sheldon for Attorney General with Libertarian Bill Wohlsifer at 6%, and Jeff Atwater is up 46/34 on Will Rankin for Chief Financial Officer.

Florida's medical marijuana amendment is still receiving more than the 60% it needs to become law, but opposition to it has risen in recent months. 61% of voters say they support it to 33% who are opposed. That's down from a 66/25 spread in favor of passage in June and a 65/23 spread in favor in January.

Hillary Clinton leads the entire GOP field for President in Florida, although a match up with Jeb Bush would be very close with Clinton holding only a 46/44 advantage. She leads by at least 7 points over the rest of the GOP field- it's 49/42 over Marco Rubio, 46/38 over Chris Christie, 48/40 over Rand Paul, 49/40 over Mike Huckabee, and 51/36 over Ted Cruz.

PPP surveyed 818 likely voters from September 4th to 7th. The margin of error for the survey is +/- 3.4%. 80% of interviews for the poll were conducted over the phone with 20% interviewed over the internet to reach respondents who don't have landline telephones.
