Pat Roberts anonymous to many Kansas voters

Raleigh, N.C. – -Pat Roberts is one of the most anonymous Senators in the country. 31% of voters approve of him, 28% disapprove, and 41% don't have an opinion either way. The only Senator in the county we've found with a higher percentage of voters having no opinion about him is first term Mark Kirk of Illinois.

Nevertheless Roberts shouldn't be in too much trouble next year, at least in a general election. He leads every Democrat we tested against him by double digits- it's 11 points over Kathleen Sebelius at 51/40, 15 points over Mark Parkinson at 49/34, and 16 over Carl Brewer at 50/34.

Roberts' low profile could give him more trouble in a primary. Just 42% of Republicans say they would vote to re-nominate him, while 34% say they would prefer someone 'more conservative.' Those are pretty uninspiring numbers if a more fiery candidate wanted to challenge him from the right. Roberts has bigger leads over specific GOP alternatives we tested against him though- 21 points over Todd Tiahrt at 47/26, 31 over Tim Huelskamp at 53/22, and 36 over Kris Kobach at 55/19.

Democrats might have a better chance with someone like Huelskamp as the GOP nominee- he leads the Brewer/Sebelius/Parkinson trio by only 4-6 points.

“Pat Roberts’ low profile could make him susceptible to a primary challenge,” said Dean Debnam, President of Public Policy Polling. “But it’s unlikely Democrats could make this race competitive regardless of the Republican candidate.”

Jerry Moran is Kansas' more popular Senator with a 38% approval rating and 27% disapproving, although that makes him one of the less well known Senators in the country as well.

PPP surveyed 1,229 registered Kansas voters, including 760 Republican primary voters, from February 21st to 24th. The margin of error for the overall sample is +/-2.8% and for the Republicans it's +/-3.6%. This poll was not paid for or authorized by any campaign or political organization. PPP surveys are conducted through automated telephone interviews.
