Clinton tied or ahead against GOP candidates in Louisiana

Raleigh, N.C. – Louisiana was not on anyone's list of battleground states in 2012, but it might be in 2016 if Hillary Clinton runs for president, according to PPP's latest poll.

Clinton is tied with Paul Ryan at 46%, and she leads Marco Rubio 46/43 and Bobby Jindal 48/45. 66% of voters in his home state do not think Jindal should run for president in 2016. The state's voters have a narrowly favorable opinion of Clinton, 46% to 44%.

These results are within the margin of error, but they are indicative of Clinton's unmatched appeal to moderate voters. 67% of moderates have a favorable view of Clinton to 25% unfavorable. Even 23% of somewhat conservative voters view her favorably, and these numbers hold up in match-ups against each of the GOP candidates.

New Orleans mayor Mitch Landrieu could have a shot at winning the governorship in Louisiana if he decides to run in 2015. He is tied with David Vitter at 44% and leads Jay Dardenne by 2 points, 44% to 42%. Landrieu has strong statewide popularity with a +23 favorability rating, with 49% favorable, 26% unfavorable and 25% not sure.

"Mitch Landrieu has an unusual amount of appeal to Louisiana voters for a Democrat," said Dean Debnam, President of Public Policy Polling. "A Gubernatorial run by him would make for a pretty interesting race."

In New Orleans Saints news, 59% of Louisiana voters think the alleged bounty program on opposing quarterbacks was inappropriate, but 60% also thought the NFL's sanctions were too strict. 86% view quarterback Drew Brees favorably and 74% have a favorable opinion of head coach Sean Payton.

Same-sex marriage is opposed 59% to 29%, but 54% support some form of legal recognition—25% for marriage equality and 29% for civil unions. Voters disapprove of President George W. Bush's handling of Hurricane Katrina by 9 points, 40/49. Longtime governor Edwin Edwards, recently released from prison on racketeering charges, has surprisingly decent favorability numbers at 42/44.

PPP surveyed 603 Louisiana voters from February 8th to 12th. The margin of error for the sample is +/-4 %. This poll was not paid for or authorized by any campaign or political organization. PPP surveys are conducted through automated telephone interviews.
