Snyder, Schauer in Tight Battle for Governor

Raleigh, N.C. – PPP’s newest Michigan poll finds a tied race for governor this fall between incumbent Republican Rick Snyder and Democrat Mark Schauer, along with a close race for the open Senate seat between Republican Terri Lynn Land and Democrat Gary Peters.

In the Governor’s race, Snyder and Schauer are tied at 40% apiece despite Snyder’s highly negative job performance rating. 37% of Michigan voters approve of Snyder’s performance while 54% disapprove. However, while voters have a negative opinion of the incumbent, they tend to have no opinion at all on Schauer. Among those that do, Schauer has a slightly positive rating with 27% favorable and 24% unfavorable. 49% of voters have no opinion either way. Schauer actually leads Snyder within every age group except older than 65, where Snyder leads with 49% to Schauer’s 38%.

“Rick Snyder’s approval ratings are on the decline in the midst of an advertising blitz against him,” said Dean Debnam, President of Public Policy Polling. “This is looking like a very competitive race with a lot of voters remaining undecided and Mark Schauer still largely undefined to Michiganders.”

The Democratic candidate for Senate Gary Peters is also a relative unknown, as 46% of voters do not have an opinion on him. Despite this, Peters leads Terri Lynn Land by 5 points at 41% to 36%. More voters have an opinion on Land, but it turns out to be a negative one, as 42% of people view her unfavorably compared to 32% who view her favorably. Helping Peters could be the popularity of retiring Democratic Senator Carl Levin, who has an approval rating of 47% with 34% disapproval.

In state politics, Michigan voters have a much more positive view of Democrats in the legislature than Republicans. While voters are split on their view of Democrats (39% favorable/39% unfavorable), they have a highly negative view of the Republicans by more than a two-to-one margin (24% favorable/56% unfavorable). In a generic ballot, 48% of voters say they would vote for the Democratic candidate for state legislature and 34% say they would vote for the Republican.

PPP surveyed 578 registered voters from June 26th to 29th. The margin of error for the survey is +/- 4.1%. 80% of interviews for the poll were conducted over the phone with 20% interviewed over the internet to reach respondents who don’t have landline telephones.
