Republican Hill leads Bullock by one for MT-Gov.

Raleigh, N.C. – Of two potential Montana Democratic gubernatorial candidates and four Republicans, likely Democratic nominee Steve Bullock is the best-known and by far the best-liked, and his popularity has only grown in the five months since PPP last polled the race. But because of the state’s Republican leanings, he remains down to his most likely Republican opponent, Rick Hill.

Bullock lags Hill by only one point (39-38), but that is hardly a change from June (39-37). This is despite the fact that Bullock’s favorability spread has grown from an already solid 28-18 to 34-17, while Hill’s has remained equally in the red as before (22-27 versus 20-25).

Bullock is more familiar to his base than Hill to his, so more Republicans (19%) are undecided than Democrats (13%). Thus, Hill could expand his lead unless Bullock can cut into the GOP vote or rack up a lead with independents. He leads by one point with them now, and 35% are undecided. Each candidate is pulling 6% of the opposite party.

Last Wednesday, PPP showed that Rick Hill was a solid favorite for the GOP nomination. Bullock has an even more dominant lead on the Democratic side of the ledger, topping Larry Jent, 70-6.

If Hill were somehow denied the nomination, Bullock would lead the other three Republicans tested (Jeff Essmann, Neil Livingstone, and Ken Miller) by 11 or 12 points. Jent would trail Essmann and Livingstone by four, Miller by eight, and Hill by 13.

“Steve Bullock is a strong candidate for the Democrats, but the Republicans have a generic edge,” said Dean Debnam, President of Public Policy Polling.

PPP surveyed 1,625 Montana voters, including 573 usual Democratic primary voters, from November 28th to 30th. The margin of error for the entire survey is +/-2.4%, and +/-4.1% for the Democratic primary portion. This poll was not paid for or authorized by any campaign or political organization. PPP surveys are conducted through automated telephone interviews. PPP is a Democratic polling company, but polling expert Nate Silver of the New York Times found that its surveys in 2010 actually exhibited a slight bias toward Republican candidates.
