NC Governor's Race Continues To Be A Toss Up

Raleigh, N.C. – PPP's latest poll of North Carolina voters shows current Attorney General Roy Cooper leading current Governor Pat McCrory 43/41. This is nearly identical to Cooper's lead of 44/41 over McCrory in a June 3rd poll. Cooper is viewed much more favorably at 36/20 than McCrory of whose job performance voters disapprove of 33/48. Women support Cooper more widely than McCrory at 46/36, while men support McCrory more at 47/39.

“Pat McCrory's approval rating this month is the lowest we've found for him since he took office,” said Dean Debnam, President of Public Policy Polling. “His dealings during this legislative session have antagonized some conservative voters without winning him any new friends across party lines. The big question though is whether this increased unhappiness with him will persist or fade once the legislature has gone home.”

Incumbent Republican United States Senator Richard Burr maintains a sizeable lead against all potential Democratic challengers. Burr leads Dan Blue 45/35, Grier Martin 47/33, Mike McIntyre 44/35, Brad Miller 46/36, Heath Shuler 44/36, and Beth Wood 45/34.

Blue and Wood are viewed more favorably than unfavorably at 18/16 and 16/11 respectively. Miller is viewed as favorably as he is unfavorably at 14/14. In response to each Democrat, greater than 60% of voters were not sure how they felt or did not recognize the candidate.

Burr has much higher recognition but retains a negative job approval rating at 28/39. This is a much lower approval rating than Burr had in the June 3rd poll, which showed voters disapproving of his job performance 35/36. But Burr's lead over every Democratic challenger has nevertheless remained consistent since the last North Carolina poll.

In the Lieutenant Governor's race Republican Dan Forest leads Democrat Linda Coleman 43/36. This is a slightly larger than Forest's June 3rd 4-point lead (41/37).

Public Policy Polling surveyed 529 registered voters overall and 288 Republican primary voters from July 2nd-6th. The margin of error for the overall survey is +/-4.3%, and for the Republican primary subsample it's +/-5.8%. 80% of participants responded via the phone, while 20% of respondents who did not have landlines conducted the survey over the Internet.
