N.C. Republican takeover becomes increasingly unpopular

Raleigh, N.C. – For the second month in a row, North Carolina Gov. Pat McCrory has a net-negative approval rating. And it's the lowest it's ever been: 39% of voters approve of the Republican's job performance, while 51% disapprove.

The Republican-dominated General Assembly is doing even worse, with an approval rating of only 24%. Nearly half of voters have a higher opinion of the Moral Monday protestors than the N.C. legislature. Half of voters polled say the G.A. is causing North Carolina national embarrassment, including 21% of Republican voters.

Democrats maintain the lead on the generic legislative ballot by a 50-41 margin. 41% of voters approve of Democratic legislators, while 36% approve of Republicans. 51% of voters say it's been a bad thing for Republicans to have total control of the state government. Approval of the state's Republican officeholders as a whole is 35-56.

Support for Rev. William Barber, who started Moral Mondays, is 28-26 favorable-unfavorable. 43% of Democrats see him favorably, compared to 8% of Republicans.

The budget passed by the General Assembly and signed into law by the governor is opposed by 52% of voters. Even 21% of Republican voters oppose the budget. Half of voters say the governor broke his promise not to sign any further restrictions on abortion. McCrory's move offering cookies to protestors instead of meeting with them is seen as inappropriate by 57% of voters, including nearly a third of Republican voters.

“Voters think Pat McCrory handled the abortion bill very poorly,” said Dean Debnam, President of Public Policy Polling. “They think he broke a campaign promise by signing it and compounded the problem by being disrespectful to protestors against it. As a result his numbers continue to decline.”

Also unpopular among voters is the legislature's end of the back-to-school sales-tax holiday; 55% of voters oppose it, while 34% support it.

PPP surveyed 600 North Carolina voters between August 8th and 11th. The margin of error for the survey is +/- 4.0%. This poll was not authorized or paid for by any campaign or political organization. PPP's surveys are conducted through automated telephone interviews.
