Clinton leads Republican field in New Hampshire by wide margins

Raleigh, N.C. – PPP's new New Hampshire poll finds Hillary Clinton with commanding leads over the entire Republican field in the state- she is up by anywhere from 9 to 15 points against the nine GOP contenders we tested her against.

The hopefuls who come closest to Clinton are Rand Paul and Scott Walker, each of whom trail by 9 at 49/40. The ones who do the worst are Chris Christie (51/36) and Ted Cruz (52/37) who each have 15 point deficits. In between are Marco Rubio who trails by 12 at 50/38, and Jeb Bush (49/36), Ben Carson (51/38), Mike Huckabee (51/38), and Rick Perry (also 51/38) who all trail by 13 points.

In most of the swing states we've polled Elizabeth Warren and Joe Biden have trailed the leading Republican contender even if Clinton had a lead over him but that's not the case in New Hampshire- Warren (45/40) and Biden (44/40) both lead Walker even if it's by a more narrow margin than the one Clinton enjoys.

“New Hampshire has become pretty reliably Democratic at the Presidential level over the last 10 years,” said Dean Debnam, President of Public Policy Polling®. “Early indications are that 2016 may continue that trend with Hillary Clinton dominating the Republican field in the state.”

71% of voters in the state oppose a proposed bill to let people carry a concealed gun without a license, while only 23% are supportive of it. The overwhelming opposition to the bill is bipartisan- Democrats (87/9), independents (71/22), and Republicans (55/37) are all against it. This is a case of Republican leaders going well beyond even what the party base thinks is acceptable in an attempt to appease the gun lobby.

On the issue of making the red tailed hawk the official state raptor, New Hampshire voters stand with the kids. 53% support the proposal to only 12% who are opposed to it. This is another one where voters agree across party lines- Democrats (60/10), independents (53/10), and Republicans (46/18) all think it's a good idea.

Public Policy Polling® interviewed 747 New Hampshire voters from April 9th to 13th. The margin of error is +/-3.6%. 80% of interviews for the poll were conducted over the phone with 20% interviewed over the internet to reach respondents who don't have landline telephones.

q31 Obtaining a college degree opens up doors of opportunity and better financial security. But the soaring cost of college tuition puts college out of reach for some, and costly college loan rates are too burdensome for most. America should invest in our generation to help us reach our potential. We must make college affordable, expand student aid, and roll back the cost of student loans so we have the opportunity to get good jobs, support our families, buy homes and re-build our economy. Would you be more or less likely to vote for someone who supports college affordability and student loan reform, or would it not make a difference?

More likely to vote for someone who supports college affordability and student loan reform .. 65%
Less likely to vote for someone who supports college affordability and student loan reform .. 14%
Wouldn't make a difference..... 16%

q32 The big special interests, the super-rich, and the big polluters get their special tax loopholes and breaks for sending American jobs overseas. They oppose raising the minimum wage by $2 an hour, oppose equal pay for women, and oppose making college more affordable. We believe that the rich and big corporations should pay their fair share, and believe workers should be paid enough to support their families. Would you be more or less likely to vote for someone who stands up for working class people and holding big corporate interests accountable, or would it not make a difference?

More likely to vote for someone who stands up for working class people and holds big corporate interests accountable..... 68%
Less likely to vote for someone who stands up for working class people and holds big corporate interests accountable..... 17%
Wouldn't make a difference..... 12%
