Americans pick Ronald McDonald over Burger King for President

Raleigh, N.C. - Americans clearly prefer Ronald McDonald for President over his rival the Burger King, $36 \%$ to $22 \%$, in PPP's first national poll on food. $42 \%$ are not sure.

Dinner is the preferred meal of $52 \%$ of Americans compared to $29 \%$ for breakfast and a mere $11 \%$ for lunch. $21 \%$ consider themselves to be obese to $79 \%$ who do not, which is slightly lower than the actual U.S. obesity rate. Republicans have a negative opinion of vegans, with $31 \%$ of GOP voters viewing them favorably to $41 \%$ unfavorably. $54 \%$ of Americans-especially Democrats-would be willing to pay more for food to allow restaurant employees to have health insurance, while $30 \%$ would not pay more

Burger King is America’s favorite fast-food hamburger restaurant with 22\% support, followed by 19\% for Wendy's, 15\% for McDonald's, 9\% for Hardee's / Carl's Jr., 7\% for Sonic and 5\% for Jack in the Box. McDonald's topped the list of least favorite hamburger restaurants with $22 \%$ support for that distinction. Americans have an overall negative opinion of fast food- $40 \%$ favorable to $49 \%$ unfavorable.

Americans are torn between KFC (33\%) and Chick-fil-A (32\%) as their favorite fast-food chicken restaurant, while Popeye's (10\%) and Church's (5\%) cannot compete. 48\% of Republicans and $42 \%$ of Southerners identified Chick-fil-A as their favorite choice. Pizza Hut comes out on top as America's favorite pizza chain with 30\% support. Domino's and Little Ceasar's are tied at $25 \%$ each for least favorite pizza chain.
$57 \%$ of Americans would rather drink a Coke than a beer, while $30 \%$ prefer beer and $12 \%$ claim they never drink either. Americans prefer Coke over Pepsi $43 \%$ to $35 \%$ and regular soda over diet soda $41 \%$ to $34 \%$. $22 \%$ say they don't drink soda at all.
"Even food polarizes Americans along party lines these days," said Dean Debnam, President of Public Policy Polling. "Democrats and Republicans disagree on donuts and bagels, KFC and Chick Fil A, and even the merits of Olive Garden as quality authentic ethnic food."

PPP surveyed 500 registered American voters from February $21^{\text {st }}$ to $24^{\text {th }}$. The margin of error for the overall sample is $+/-4.4 \%$. This poll was not paid for or authorized by any campaign or political organization. PPP surveys are conducted through automated telephone interviews.
