National support for stricter gun laws, immigration reform

Raleigh, N.C. – As Congress dithers on gun control and immigration reform, PPP’s latest national poll finds strong support for action on both issues.

American voters support Congress passing stricter gun laws by a 12 point margin, 53% to 41%. Gun control support comes from 80% of Democrats, 48% of independents and 28% of Republicans. Americans also support an assault weapons ban by a 6 point margin, 48% to 42%, including 71% of Democrats, 43% of independents and 27% of Republicans. 39% of voters said they are less likely to vote for a NRA-supported candidate, while 24% would be more likely to vote for that candidate. It would not make a difference for 34%.

62% of voters think illegal immigrants who are living in the U.S. should be offered a chance to apply for legal citizenship while 30% say they should instead be deported back their native countries. 82% of Democrats, 61% of independents and 40% of Republicans favor a path to citizenship, while 47% of Republicans, 30% of independents and 14% of Democrats favor deportation of illegal immigrants.

“Republican opposition in Congress to stricter gun laws or immigration reform is out of step with general public opinion,” said Dean Debnam, President of Public Policy Polling.

Net approval for Congressional Republicans (26/68) is 22 points lower than it is for their Democratic counterparts (37/57). This is mostly because 48% of self-identified Republicans disapprove of their own party against 43% who approve of Congressional Republicans. By comparison, Democratic voters approve of their own party 68% to 24%. If the election were held today, House Democrats would lead Republicans 46% to 42%.

President Obama’s national job approval rating is slightly underwater with 47% approving and 49% disapproving of his performance. Former President George W. Bush’s favorability numbers are not significantly worse—40% of voters have a favorable view against 48% with an unfavorable view. The Iraq War is still unpopular, with 57% opposed to the war and just 30% in support.

PPP surveyed 1,247 American voters from March 27th to 30th. The margin of error for the overall sample is +/-2.8%. This poll was not paid for or authorized by any campaign or political organization. PPP surveys are conducted through automated telephone interviews.
