Brown Early Favorite; Kasich down with GOP, up with Dems

Raleigh, N.C. – PPP's new Ohio poll finds that Sherrod Brown has solid approval numbers and at least at this very early stage would be a strong favorite for reelection. Brown has a 43/30 approval rating- by comparison Rob Portman is at 31/37. Brown is a rare Democrat who Republicans don't hate- just 48% of them disapprove of him. In a hypothetical rematch with 2012 opponent Josh Mandel, Brown leads 45/36. That includes a 14 point advantage with independents at 41/27.

“Sherrod Brown continues to be a popular Senator,” said Dean Debnam, President of Public Policy Polling. “And he leads Josh Mandel by a wider margin than he defeated him by in 2012, suggesting his position has grown stronger over the last few years.”

When PPP polled Ohio in March John Kasich had a 54/36 approval spread, and his numbers aren't terribly different now at 50/37. There have been a lot of shifts in the underlying numbers though. Kasich has seen a significant drop in his standing with Republicans- from 73/20 approval down to 59/32. But he's seen a similar sized improvement in his numbers with Democrats, going from 36/56 in March to now being the exceedingly rare politician who's actually on positive ground with voters of the other party at 43/39. Kasich's snub of Donald Trump is hurting him with the base but helping his standing across party lines.

Ohioans strongly side with Democrats on a number of key issues going on right now:

-87% support background checks on all gun purchases, to just 7% who are opposed to them. That includes support from 94% of Democrats, 83% of independents, and 82% of Republicans. There's also 83/9 support for barring those on the Terror Watch List from buying guns, with 89% of Democrats, 82% of Republicans, and 76% of independents in support of that. Ohioans also support a ban on assault weapons 51/37- that's something where Democrats (76% support) are far more united in their favor for it than Republicans (54% against) are in their opposition.

-75% of voters in the state support increasing the minimum wage to at least $10 an hour, compared to only 14% who think it's fine where it is and 9% who don't think there should be a federal minimum wage at all. That includes support from 92% of Democrats, 71% of independents, and 59% of Republicans.

-62% of voters in the state want to see Merrick Garland's nomination to the Supreme Court move forward, with only 20% opposed to having hearings. Democrats (83/6) and independents (57/19) are overwhelmingly in favor of hearings but what's most striking is that even Republicans (44/34) think they should occur. This is an issue where Rob Portman is very out of touch with his constituents.

-Indians fans outnumber Reds fans in the state 45/33. There's an interesting partisan divide with Democrats going strongly for the Indians (48/30), while Republicans (41/39) actually go narrowly to the Reds. Indians fans are quite happy with their current leadership, with Terry Francona coming in at a 53/8 approval rating. Reds fans meanwhile show little support for Bryan Price- just 19% approve of the job he's doing to 24% who disapprove.

-Finally we get asked to poll on some pretty random stuff when we go to speak at conferences across the country, and a lot of the time we say sure why not. So that's why we bring you the important news that 37% of voters think the chicken comes first to 23% for the egg, with 39% not sure one way or another. And rabbits have a 67/7 favorability rating and their popularity is something that brings our divided nation together across party lines. Maybe what this campaign needs is more rabbits.

Public Policy Polling surveyed 1,334 registered voters from July 22nd to 24th. The margin of error is +/- 2.7%. 80% of participants, selected through a list based sample, responded via the phone, while 20% of respondents who did not have landlines conducted the survey over the internet through an opt-in internet panel.
