Chilton, Foushee lead pack to replace Kinnaird

Raleigh, N.C. – Mark Chilton and Valerie Foushee are the top choices of voters in Chatham and Orange Counties to replace Ellie Kinnaird in the State Senate, PPP's newest survey finds. 36% of voters say Chilton would be one of their top two choices, and 28% rank Foushee in their top two. There's little support for any of the remaining candidates- 14% put Alice Bordsen in their top two, Heidi Chapman has 7%, Amy Tiemann 5%, Jim Porto 2%, and M. Lynette Hartsell 1%.

Chilton and Foushee are also the only people who have put their names in the mix that a majority of voters in the district are familiar with. They are both quite popular among voters familiar with them and hold nearly identical favorability ratings- Chilton's at 40/14 and Foushee's at 40/13. The rest of the applicants are basically unknown to the folks they hope to represent- Bordsen has 24% name recognition, Tiemann 19%, Porto 18%, Chapman 17%, and Hartsell 13%.

Chilton comes out in first because of strong support in Carrboro (36/15 over Foushee), Chapel Hill (31/15), and Chatham County (21% to 7% for Bordsen with Foushee at 6%.) Foushee does best in unincorporated Orange County (33% to 15% for Bordsen with Chilton at 13%) and Hillsborough (24% to 13% for Chapman with Chilton at 12%).

One thing that may have Chilton polling well for this vacancy is his decision to get arrested as part of the 'Moral Monday' protests. 75% of voters in the district approve of local elected officials who got arrested as part of that movement compared to only 18% who take issue with their decisions.

Whoever gets the appointment will have a hard time filling Kinnaird's shoes in voters' eyes. She leaves office with a 72% approval rating and only 14% of voters disapproving of the work she did in the Senate.

“Ellie Kinnaird has a higher approval than any politician we’ve tested anywhere in the country this year,” said Dean Debnam, President of Public Policy Polling. “Voters are very happy with the work she did over the last 17 years in the NC Senate.”

PPP surveyed 484 SD 23 voters between August 26-28, 2013. The margin of error was +/- 4.5%. This poll was not authorized or paid for by any campaign or political organization. PPP's surveys are conducted through automated telephone interviews.
