Warner safe for reelection

Raleigh, N.C.- PPP's latest Virginia poll finds Barack Obama with a 49% positive to 48% negative job approval rating in the Commonwealth. Senator Mark Warner's job performance gets positive ratings by 53%-27%. Senator Tim Kaine enjoys a 44%-38% positive spread. Bob McDonnell has 44% positive marks and negative ratings of 37%.

Virginians have favorable opinions of Bill Bolling by a margin of 22%-20%. Eric Cantor elicits unfavorable opinions from 40% of voters and favorable views from 26%. Mark Warner leads Bolling 54%-33% in the former's reelection race. Warner tops Cantor by 53%-34%. Bob McDonnell trails Warner 39%-50%.

"Mark Warner looks like a pretty safe bet for reelection," said Dean Debnam, President of Public Policy Polling. "No high profile Republicans have stepped up to run against him and even if they did they would start out at a considerable disadvantage."

By a margin of 80%-12%, Virginians do not think employers should be allowed to discriminate against employees based on sexual orientation. Commonwealth voters mirror the trend of strong bipartisan support for background checks. 77% favor requiring background checks on all gun sales to 16% who oppose such a requirement. Background checks garner the support of 93% of Democrats, 72% of independents and 66% of Republicans.

In news that will play well in Blacksburg, 30% of Virginia voters say they're Virginia Tech fans to 28% who back UVA. When asked to weigh in on another hot button issue, Virginians stated by a margin of 41% to 17% that the word "g-i-f" should be pronounced "gif," not "jif."

PPP surveyed 672 Virginia voters from May 24-26, 2013. The margin of error was +/- 3.8%. This poll was not authorized or paid for by any campaign or political organization. PPP's surveys are conducted through automated telephone interviews.
